

1. Go to your Pro Series website.
This will ensure that the client receives their updates from you. Click the "Create Account" button in the upper-right corner.

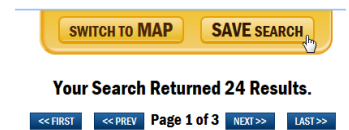

2. Fill out the mandatory fields. You can assign the client a temporary password (i.e. "6442") that they will be able to change later when they log in to your site. Click "Create Account".

3. Navigate to your property search page.

4. Enter your search criteria. In this case, homes in Fresno, 93704 priced between $300,000 and $500,000. Click "Start Search".

5. Above the search results list, click "Save Search".

6. Type a name for the search, make sure "Get Daily Email Updates" is checked, then click "Save It".

That's it! Your client will now receive emails from you several times a day with new listings that match their criteria!
