

COMPROMISE

ISN'T ALWAYS KEY

When buying a home, there is a lot to take into consideration. Often, buyers have to compromise and generally do not get everything on their wish list. Here are three items that REALTORS® recommend buyers not compromise on.

THE FLOOR PLAN

It's difficult and expensive to reconfigure a home's floorplan. If a home does not fit your minimum criteria in terms of number of rooms and the flow of the main living areas, cross it off your list.

THE SCHOOL DISTRICT

Buyers should visit the school district's website to get a map of its exact boundaries to avoid any surprises later on.

THE NEIGHBORS

Be cognizant of neighboring homes, as they can affect future resale value.
